REIMAGINING
MINNESOTA STATE

Forum Session 3. The Nature of Work:
Changing careers, competencies, and credentials in the future

Date: February 4, 2019
Location: Normandale Community College
Time: 8:00-9:45am

Discussion Questions:

1. What are strategies or promising innovations you are pursuing to respond to these types of disruptions outlined in the Session 3 Briefing Paper and presentations? How do you address issues of equity and inclusion within the execution of these and future strategies?

2. What opportunities do you see for Minnesota State reimagine program development and the creation of educational credentials that are more responsive to changing workforce dynamics and demands in order to position our students for immediate and ongoing career success?

3. What are opportunities for Minnesota State institutions and other organizations to partner and collaborate in order to more successfully address these forces or pursue future strategies?

4. How will we reimagine our approach to employee development that prepares and supports them as they navigate this new landscape of learning?

5. In order to address these disruptions, how might Minnesota State encourage, support, and enable greater innovation and entrepreneurial activities without losing its responsibility for advocacy and accountability?
