SUMMARY

- » Designs the demolition of NHCC’s dated Fine Arts Center and construction of a new building housing technology-rich arts education studios, classrooms, and performance spaces
- » Project and future operating cost funding provided through partnerships with the City of Brooklyn Park, Metropolitan State University Foundation, and NHCC Foundation, as well as private donations
- » Expands postsecondary pathways in the science, technology, engineering, arts, and math (STEAM) areas via partnership with Metropolitan State University
- » Engages communities in the northwest Metro area through access to arts and technology programming
- » Takes advantage of the future light rail station located next to campus
- » Provides a site for a future adjoining STEAM magnet school through the Osseo School District

» STUDENT IMPACT

Transforms and advances the learning experiences of the college’s diverse student population, as well as people from surrounding communities, by creating a destination for arts education and innovation at a highly visible location in Brooklyn Park.
